26 – 30 January 2015
11.00 – 16.00

Meet Tate Collection artist Sutapa Biswas during her residency as part of RadioCity at Tate Britain, to discuss saris and symbolism, home and 'belonging', and the stories that clothing and objects tell.

Bring along an item of clothing or object that means something to you, or just turn up.

Sutapa will be building a new sonic alphabet based on her conversations with people over the course of the week, played back on the final day in the space and broadcast on Resonance 104.5FM.

Book your slot on the Tate website to be part of this exciting opportunity.
